

2013 Summer Reading Challenge Rules

1. We officially start on Monday, December 10th.
2. We'll look at your reading logs on Saturday & deal with prizes then. Double Dipper cones will most likely come from the Honey Farm.
3. We're offering a Grand Prize to both of you as well as the Super Grand Prize.
4. Grand Prize & Super Grand Prize, should they obtain them, will be given out at our Finale Party.
5. The Finale Party will happen the final weekend of our Reading Challenge. You will have until then to reach your goals. At the party you will also receive certificates for participation as well as for the amount of hours or books read. Each party goer will be asked to dress up as their favourite book character & then share about their favourite book, preferably one they read during the course of the challenge.
6. There are a few finer details about the book choices you can make.. In an effort to keep you from limiting yourselves to picture books & comic books the following guidelines have been put in place: Each participant must read 5 Audio books or 10 hours; 2 chapter books or 300 pages; 4 picture books; 2 comic books; 1 non-fiction book. To help you even more: Read one book you started but never finished. Choose a book from a new series to try out. Pick a book you've always wanted to read, but never got to. Ask Mom for a list of books you might enjoy & pick a few from there.
8. Once all books in the above categories have been met you are free to choose what you'd like to read. However, one cannot count more than a total of 8 picture books & 4 comic books.
9. Above all have fun, & get lost in a wonderfully awesome new book!!

Good luck!
