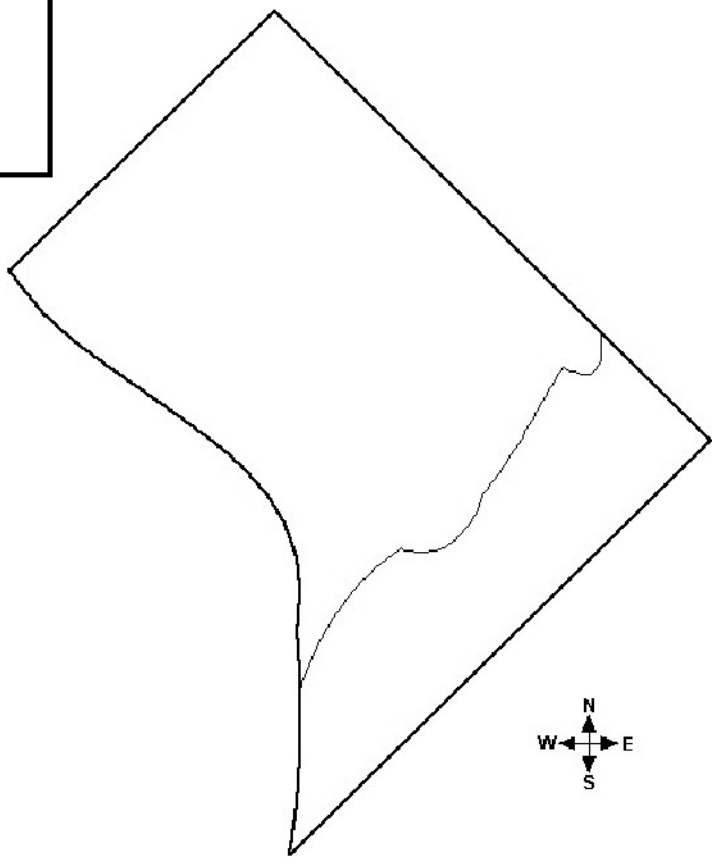
Arthur Meets The President

Where Will I find it In Washington D.C.

Use the map below to mark the places Arthur and his class visited while touring Washington D.C.



Jefferson Memorial

Capitol Hill

White House

National Museum Of Natural History

Waghington Monument

Famous Places In Washington D. C.

Directions: Cut apart, match pictures with names in booklet. Staple on lefthand side and glue in lapbook. Picutres are as follows: Jefferson Memorial, Capitol Hill, White House, National Museum Of Natural History, Washington Monument.

3 Ways I can help my sibbling

5 Ways I can help make American Great!

What's

First Class

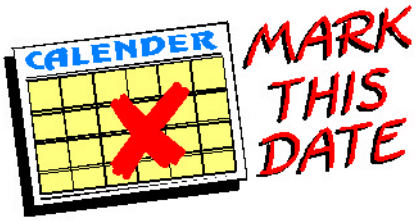
Younger students might prefer to list a few reasons instead of writing an essay

Help your student learn how to address and envelope

How long to climb?

Use booklet to make your own math sentences, or to write the answer of how long it will take to climb 898 stairs.

When Is President's Day?



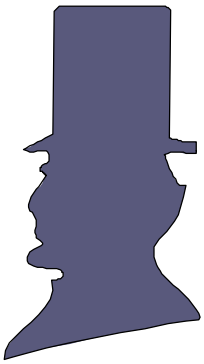
Cut out as one piece, then cut up the dotted lines so each number can be lifted to write: hundreds, tens, ones as you teach place value.

8	9	8
What's	my place	value

My Days Of The Week Book

How many seconds in a minute, how many seconds in 5 minutes

How many rooms?



Lincoln's Birthday is:

Washington's Birthday is:

How Long is One Presidential Term?

essay

a short piece of writing

conclusion

the end, finish, close, or last part ceremony

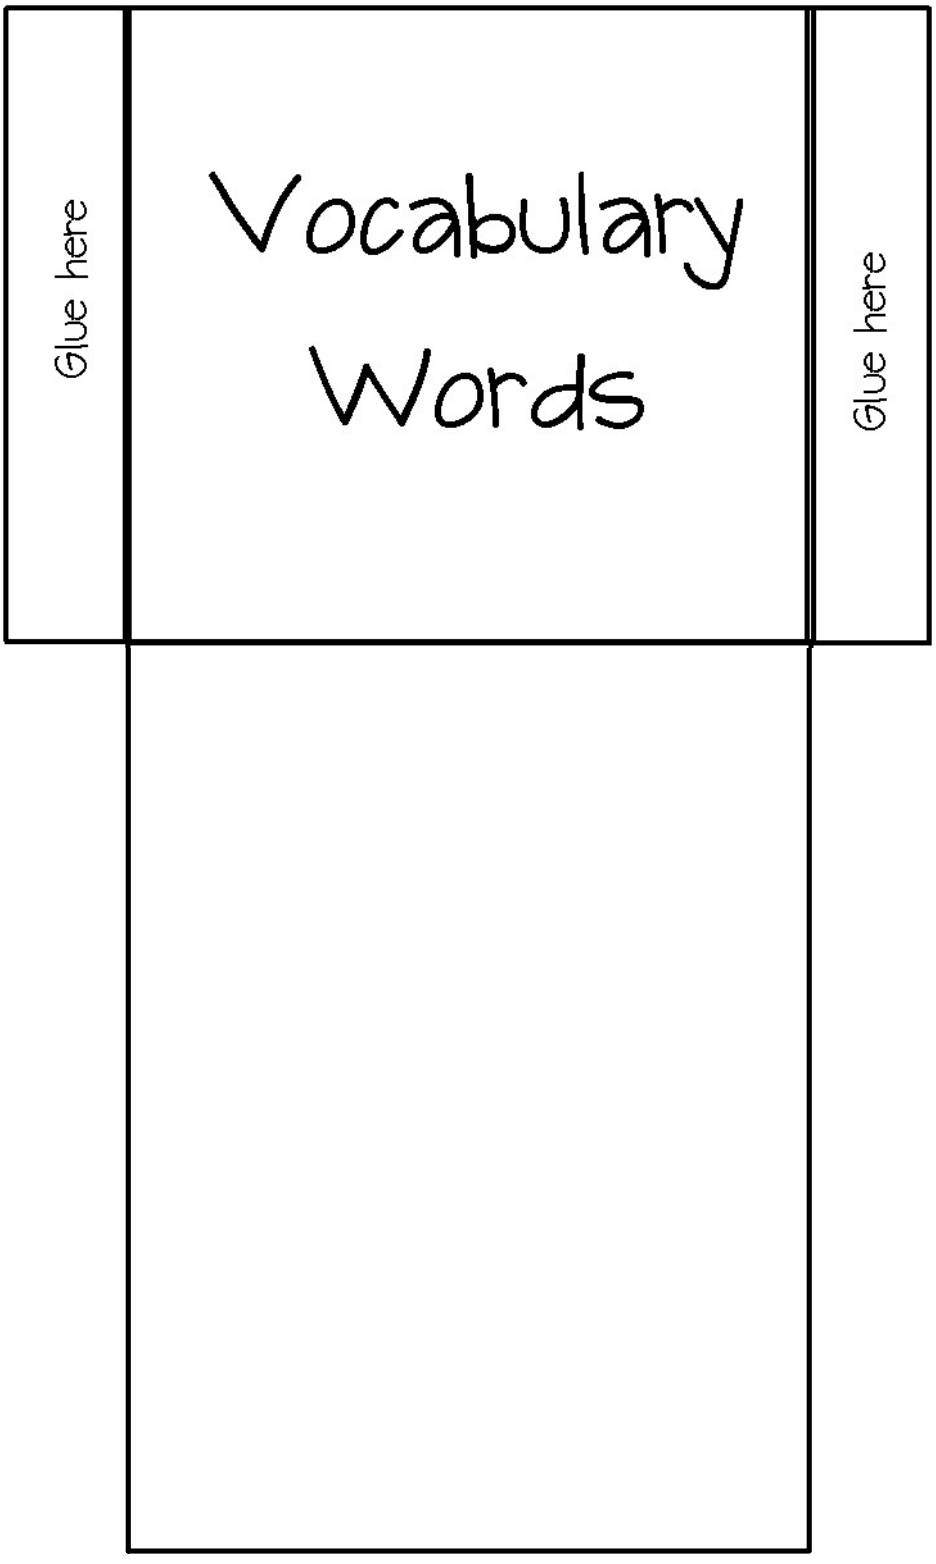
an official gathering to mark a special event.

For better durability these should be printed on cardstock. To affix them in your lapbook print out the following page. Fold on the solid lines, placing glue on the two small tabs to form a pocket.



Glue here
Vocabulary Words
Glue here